Booking conditions and essential information.

All rooms are available by 1:30pm, we kindly request rooms are vacated by 10:00am on day of departure. Luggage may be left in the hotel for later departures, although no responsibility for theft, loss or damage to luggage left on the premises will be accepted.

When you make your booking and we have received the required booking, a legally binding contract exists between us that is non cancellable and non refundable. You may still remain liable to pay in full or part for the booking, even if you are unable to attend your holiday. Even where you have not paid in full at the time of cancellation, you will remain liable for the full cost. If for some reason you need to cancel, it is important that you tell us at the first opportunity so we may attempt to re-let your room and minimise your loss. We advise you take out cancellation insurance to protect you against possible loss. Cheques are not accepted for settlement of account unless sent 7 days prior to arrival.

The hotel has large car parks, although spaces may not be reserved, vehicles are parked at owners own risk and we do not accept responsibility for any loss or damage.

The hotel reserves the right to charge any individual causing wilful damage to hotel property.

The management reserves the right to alter the entertainment programme without prior notice.

The management is proud of the standard of accommodation and service offered to all our guests. In the unlikely event that you should have cause for criticism or suggestion during your stay please bring the matter to the attention of the management so that every effort can be made to meet your requirements or resolve problems. It is considered unreasonable to make any criticism in writing upon your return home, should the hotel not first given the opportunity to attend any matters arising during your stay.
